

WORKSHOP

PRACTICAL ETHICS IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR: LIVE AND ONLINE

As public sector employees, we are expected to behave ethically at work. But making good ethical decisions at work can be easier said than done.

Practical Ethics in the Public Sector tackles this issue from the comfort and convenience of your own workplace via a live virtual classroom. Throughout the online course we explore the concepts of ethics and integrity and how they relate to our own sense of right and wrong and our roles at work.

We will provide you with practical tools that you can use in your everyday work across two x 1.5 hour sessions. You will also learn how to use these to make good ethical decisions at work.

Learning outcomes

After completing the workshop, participants will be able to:

- use the concepts of ethics and integrity to develop themselves as employees;
- positively deal with ethical decisions and risks that confront them at work; and
- get further help and information when they need it.

Who will benefit? This online course is available for and relevant to employees in the public sector (i.e. government agencies and authorities, local government, government businesses, and universities)

What will you need?

- a quiet workspace
- basic computer skills
- headphones/headset
- internet access
- desktop or laptop computer, or tablet
(the workshop is not suitable for smartphones)

How much? $75 incl. GST

To register: visit www.ttc.tas.gov.au

