

Just to say thanks

There has been a significant fire burning in a remote community for several weeks.

The story

Tanya works with TasFire and has just spent a long day and night working on that fire, made difficult by changing weather conditions.

Bruce, who lives nearby, has been watching her and her unit working hard to save properties, livelihoods, and lives – including his family home.

When the situation is under control and the units are rolling out of town, he runs after Tanya and holds out a case of beer.

“A few of us pitched in to get this for the crew to share, Tanya - just to say thanks.”

Questions

1. What are the issues or risks in this situation?
2. What should Tanya do?

The information used in this scenario is not factual – we created it for education and discussion. Any likeness to actual persons or events is coincidental.

The Commission can help

We are available to provide support and assistance with identifying, reporting, investigating, managing and preventing misconduct: prevention@integrity.tas.gov.au or 1300 720 289.

For more Misconduct Prevention resources go to www.integrity.tas.gov.au/resources