

INTEGRITY MATTERS

INTEGRITY
COMMISSION
TASMANIA

From the Chief Executive Officer

Welcome to Issue 18 of Integrity Matters.

In this edition we share two investigation reports tabled recently, outline the Commission's advice-giving function, and test your understanding of conflicts of interest with a quick quiz.

Investigation Smithies

The Commission recently finalised an investigation into recruitment practices at a Tasmanian council. Read more here.

Integrity quiz

Test and improve your knowledge with this multiple-choice quiz.

Image by dashu83 on Freepik

Seek our advice

Education and Engagement staff can help review policies and provide confidential misconduct advice. Read more about the Commission's advice function here.

Operation Paris

A spot audit of the interests declared by Members of the Tasmanian Parliament was recently made public by the Commission. Read more here.

More information

For more information on the Integrity Commission and our work in misconduct prevention, education, research, and investigation visit www.integritytas.gov.au

For advice and support, contact the Prevention team at contact@integrity.tas.gov.au or call 1300 720 289.

Michael Easton
Chief Executive Officer
Integrity Commission Tasmania

Integrity Matters - Issue 18
June 2023

INTEGRITY
COMMISSION
TASMANIA

Integrity Matters is produced by the Integrity Commission Tasmania.
www.integrity.tas.gov.au
1300 720 289

We live and work on lutruwita land, sea and waterways.
We acknowledge with respect the Palawa people.

You are receiving this email as your email address was subscribed to our mailing list. To edit your subscription please select from the options below.

Preferences | Unsubscribe