

WORKSHOP

Practical Ethics for Managers

This workshop explores the ethical challenges and opportunities facing Tasmanian public sector managers.

Through group activities and real-world scenarios, this course aims to equip participants with practical strategies for making ethical decisions with confidence.

Cost	Free
Duration	One day
Level	Foundational
Facilitator	Integrity Commission

Learning outcomes

Attending this workshop will support participants to:

- identify key attributes and behaviours of an ethical manager in their workplace
- apply ethical decision-making tools and strategies
- recognise and respond to the ethical dilemmas of managing in the middle
- role model ethical behaviours for staff.

Who should attend?

This workshop is designed for managers, supervisors and team leaders, particularly those managing in the middle.

It is suitable for both new and experienced managers working throughout the Tasmanian public sector.
